LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

TO HIS EXCELLENCY, O. MAX GARDNER, Governor,
And the Assembly of North Carolina.

GENTLEMEN:

We have the honor to submit the seventh Biennial report

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT

TO DR. DELIA DIXON-CARROLL, President,
And Members of the Board of Directors.

MADAM PRESIDENT:

I have the honor of presenting the seventh Biennial Report of the State Home and Industrial School for Girls, known as Samarcand Manor, for the period ending June 30, 1932.

In our beautiful chapel, built by the Kings Daughters, services are held every Sunday at 3 P. M.

The Rev. Mr. Matheson, Presbyterian, Jackson Springs.....	First Sunday
The Rev. Mr. Brown, Episcopal, Southern Pines.....	Second Sunday
The Rev. Mr. Jackson, Baptist, Pinebluff.....	Third Sunday
The Rev. Mr. Miller, Methodist, Biscoe.....	Fourth Sunday

The Baptists supply all the Sunday School literature and papers. The Episcopalians send several copies of the Spirit of Missions. Many of the girls show that they are interested in the services by the change in their daily life.

As much of the vegetable land has been turned into pasture for the cows, more is needed for vegetables. Twenty-eight acres of the Bailey land adjoining the State was bought for $500, but more is needed.

The land adjoining the State property on the Jackson Springs road has been offered to the State at a fair price.

The cannery has been a popular work shop all summer as every girl wants to learn to can and they really produce the goods, especially having some of the finest peaches grown in the sand hills from the school orchard.

As we have no allowance made for a parole worker, each girl is paroled to the Superintendent of Public Welfare, and so far, with a few exceptions, the results have been good.

The members of the Board have a keen interest in everything connected with the work and we feel that they are an inspiration to every girl and every worker.

Respectfully submitted,

AGNES B. MACNAUGHTON,
Superintendent.
